MY OWN HOME

Words by H. R. Snow

1. O tell me not of ease or fame, Or all that Mammon's vot'ries claim;
 2. Talk not to me of splendid halls— Of sumptuous feasts, where fol - ly calls
 3. Talk not of princely crowns to me, Or proud im - per - ial dig - ni - ty,

 5. But yet, the home, the heavenly prize, Which far beyond this scenery lies,

I know their pal - try worth; But let me hear the voice of home,
 For fashion's am - ple fee; But talk of home's most fru - gal treat,
 Re - plete with slavish care, But talk of home's un bla - zoned things,
 Than all the studied lore That sto - ic brains have ev - er thought,
 Is the rich boon I crave; Though here a stranger I may roam,

Whether a palace, hut or dome; There's naught so dear on earth.
 Where love and pure af - fec - tion meet In plain sim - ple - i - ty.
 Where vir - tue smiles and wis - dom sings Sweet sonnets, rich and fair.
 Or sto - ic genius ev - er taught To all the world be - fore.
 My heart is fixed— I have a home, Se - cure be - yond the grave.

THE BRIGHT NEW YEAR.

30

Joyfully.

1. Verdant spring and ro - sy summer, Golden autumn, all are past; O'er the face of nature frowning,
 2. Slid - ing, skating, laughing, shouting, Down the rugged hill we go; Hark! the sleigh-bells gaily pealing
 3. Though the forest shades are silent, And the birds have flown away, We can war-ble sweetest music,

Lonely winter comes at last; Yet she brings us many pleasures. Many scenes of festive cheer,
 O'er the white and downy snow! Can we think the winter dreary, When such merry tones we hear?
 We can sing as light as they. Happy season, happy greeting, Friends and kindred far and near.

Now with joy our hearts are glowing,
 Now the cup of pleasure sparkles, } While we hail the bright new year, While we hail the bright new year.
 Take our best and kindest wishes,

Words and Music by S. P. Huish.

1. Je - sus, my Sav - ior true, Guide me to Thee; Help me Thy will to do, Guide me to Thee;
 2. Through this dark world of strife Guide me to Thee; Teach me a bet - ter life, Guide me to Thee;
 3. When strife and sin a - rise, Guide me to Thee; When tears bedim my eyes, Guide me to Thee;
 4. When silent death draws near Guide me to Thee; Calm Thou my trembling fear, Guide me to Thee;

mf Be'n in the darkest night, As in the morning bright, Be Thou my beacon - light, Guide me to Thee.
 Let Thy redeeming power Be with me every hour, Be Thou my safety tower, Guide me to Thee.
 When hopes are crush'd and dead, When earthly joys are fled Thy glory round me shed, Guide me to Thee.
 Let me Thy mercy prove, Let Thy enduring love Guide me to heaven a - bove, Guide me to Thee.

THE PRIMARY MARCH.

Words and Music by William Powell.

1. Tra-di-tion and er-ror in bat-tle ar-ray The children of Zi-on prepare for the fray.
 2. Then let us press onward, hold fast to the end, While battling for truth we have God for our friend;
 3. From the east to the west shall God's kingdom extend, Meet in every land a true brother and friend;
 4. The sea shall roll back to its place in the north, The ten tribes of Israel with joy will come forth;

Jehovah's their strength and their buckler and shield; They're onward to conquer or die on the field.
 The triumph of truth is the theme of our song; As onward and upward we're marching a-long.
 Then Satan all power will have to resign, When Jesus in triumph on earth comes to reign.
 Then God will restore Enoch's ci-ty of old, And Abraham's children shall meet in one fold.

CHORUS.
 Join in the song, come and join in the song, Up with the standard and bold-ly march on; Then upward and onward with banners unfurled, For truth yet shall triumph and conquer the world.

ISLAND OF DREAMS.

Music by J. S. Lewis.

 And just where I lay, its thin sparkling spray Sang sweetly in de - li - cate tones.
 Each note grew more deep and I soon fell asleep, And was off to the Island of Dreams.
 She touched me and spoke, and I quickly awoke: And found there, dear mamma, 'twas you.
